More and more people today choose rats as their pets. This is because rats are very clever. If you want to get a pet rat, you must know how to look after it. It is not a good idea to buy only one rat. You should keep at least two of them. Rats are social animals. They may get ill if you keep them alone. You must buy a cage for your rats but make sure you take them out each day to play with them. The cage must be big enough for rats to move as they need a lot of space. You should also buy special food for rats in a pet shop.
